VI. Communications

The Virginia State Bar’s Communications Department is responsible for producing and overseeing the content that informs and educates Virginia lawyers and members of the public about the Bar’s rules, work, and mission. Publications include the pages of vsb.org, Virginia Lawyer magazine, emails, social media, free legal information brochures, annual reports, conference and section newsletters, and meeting and seminar programs.

A. Virginia Lawyer

Virginia Lawyer magazine is the official publication of the Virginia State Bar and is distributed to all VSB members in good standing, general subscribers, law libraries, other state bar associations, and the media. Total distribution is about fifty thousand.

Virginia Lawyer is published in February, April, June, August, October, and December. Issues contain substantive articles on the law and a number of regular features, including informational pieces about the bar and bar activities, letters to the editor, rule changes, ethics opinions, disciplinary actions, professional notices, advertising, and classified ads.

Section and Conference Participation in Virginia Lawyer Magazine

- Bar News
  Virginia Lawyer offers a number of ways for sections and conferences to educate lawyers and to promote membership. The first is through the Noteworthy section, which provides highlights of VSB news, CLE recaps, and programs hosted by sections and conferences. It offers a means for every lawyer in Virginia to know what your section or conference is doing and, in turn, helps to encourage section membership. Send your announcement to the editor by email to dnorman@vsb.org, or call (804) 775-0594. If you are highlighting a recent seminar or meeting, we encourage photos to accompany your announcement. Digital files should be sent as high-resolution (300 ppi) in jpg, eps, or tiff attachments. Copy deadlines for news are generally a month before the publishing dates listed above.

- Dedicated Issues
  Many of the substantive articles that appear in the magazine come from VSB sections or conferences that agree to provide articles (usually three) for a dedicated issue. Sections or conferences interested in contributing to a dedicated issue may do so by contacting the editor, Dee Norman, at (804) 775-0594 or dnorman@vsb.org. Copy deadlines for substantive articles are generally two months before the publishing dates listed above. A VSB style book is available online at www.vsb.org/site/publications/valawyer.

B. Brochures

The VSB Communications Department produces more than twenty brochures for use by attorneys and the general public. Some are available at no charge, others at nominal cost. For a list of these publications, visit the communications website at www.vsb.org/site/publications/.

If your section, conference, or committee is interested in producing a brochure, a request for new publications may be made by filling out an impact statement (see pages 9–10) and sending it to persinger@vsb.org

C. Videos

The VSB receives requests from sections, conferences, and committees wishing to produce videos. The VSB Council has enacted guidelines for video production. These guidelines are reprinted below.

1. An idea for a video should be accompanied by a proposal that includes a VSB impact statement (see pages 29–30) for the proposed video and an outline of the script.

2. Based on the idea, outline, cost, and availability of resources, the Communications Department will make recommendations to the section, conference, or committee.

3. Approval for production of a video will come from the Communications Department, with the provision that a final script will need to be reviewed, as will the video itself prior to its release.
4. Once approval is received, the committee or section will be responsible for procuring the production company and writing the finished script.

5. Credit lines on videos should include acknowledgment of any foundation or grant support; e.g., “This project was financially assisted by The Virginia Law Foundation.”

6. A rough cut of the video also will be reviewed and approved by the Communications Department prior to any release or use of the video. The department may choose to have the video viewed by a larger and more diverse group if it is being produced for the public.

D. Annual Report

The Virginia State Bar Annual Report is a summary of the bar’s activities published each fiscal year. The report is used for research by VSB staff and volunteers, journalists and historians, court and government officials, and legislators for resource information and policymaking.

The chair of each section, conference, committee, and task force should file an annual report before its annual meeting, but no later than July 1, 2020, about activities from July 1 to June 30 in the prior fiscal year. The chair who served during the report year usually writes the report. The report should be sent to the Communications Department at dnorman@vsb.org.

Previous annual reports may be read at www.vsb.org/site/about/annual-reports/.

Your annual report may include the following information:

• number of members of your section or conference;
• special activities during the fiscal year and the key person in charge of each (full names, please);
• significant issues that arose and how they were resolved;
• continuing legal education programs sponsored by your group;
• officers and board members for the next fiscal year; and
• the name and title of the person filing the report.

The annual reports are published online. Questions about the annual report should be addressed to Dee Norman at (804) 775-0594 or dnorman@vsb.org.

Please refer to the policy on content for the Virginia State Bar Virginia Lawyer magazine and the publications of VSB committees, sections, and conferences on page 39.
