Local Bar Leader of the Year Award

The Virginia State Bar Conference of Local Bar and Specialty Associations’ recognition of a Local Bar Leader of the Year identifies past and presently active leaders of local bar associations who have continued to offer important service to the bench, bar, and public. The award is a continuing monument to the dedication of local bar leaders. It also emphasizes the importance of close cooperation between the Virginia State Bar and local bar leaders.

The Conference of Local and Specialty Bar Associations will present the Local Bar Leader of the Year Award during its annual meeting on Friday, June 19, 2020, in Virginia Beach.

All entries must be postmarked or received via e-mail no later than Wednesday, May 6, 2020. See next page for criteria and nomination procedure.
Eligibility

Any current or past local bar leader in good standing with the Virginia State Bar who has remained active in local bar work through continuing contributions to his or her CLSBA-member local bar is eligible for nomination. When judging nominees, emphasis will be placed on service within the last ten years. This recognition will not be awarded solely because the recipient has held and discharged with fidelity high office or a variety of offices in the individual’s local bar association, but will honor outstanding dedication and achievement.

The Executive Committee of the Conference of Local and Specialty Bar Associations will judge the competition. Members of the Executive Committee are not eligible to win.

The winner of the Local Bar Leader of the Year Award will be notified by telephone by Friday, May 15, 2020.
