

Dear Fellow YLC Members,

"Fight for the things that you care about, but do it in a way that will lead others to join you."

- Ruth Bader Ginsburg

On September 18, 2020, the country lost a distinguished jurist, attorney, and woman. Ruth Bader Ginsburg did not let herself be defined by what others told her she could not do, but instead used that as motivation to fight for equality for all. Our legal system is a better place because of her contributions. My hope is that we, as young lawyers, can draw inspiration from Justice Ginsburg's accomplished life and use that to fuel the continued quest for everyone to have equal justice under law.

The YLC remains committed to the pursuit of the Rule of Law and equal protection of all persons. To that end, the YLC, in conjunction with the Diversity Conference, hosted the third and final episode in the Time to Talk series on September 24, focusing on implicit bias. All three town hall recordings are available to view here. Look for continued efforts and new programming in 2021.

The YLC Pro Bono Committee would like to hold a webinar on pro bono programs to introduce Virginia lawyers to opportunities to volunteer their time. Complete this short survey so we may learn more about how you would be interested in serving so we can highlight the best programs for you.

The VSB continues to provide essential services to Virginia's lawyers and the public. However, we have taken steps to keep the health and safety of our members, employees, and the general public at the forefront of our actions during this rapidly changing situation.

The VSB office at 1111 E. Main Street is closed to visitors. If you need to reach a staff person, please send an email or call the appropriate contact person. Many of our staff are teleworking and responses may be delayed. Thank you for your understanding.

This email is a service of the Virginia State Bar. Unsubscribers will not receive notices about changes to the rules of professional conduct, legal ethics opinions, compliance reminders, presidents' messages, or notices from sections and conferences of which they are a member.
