

REGISTRATION OPEN: PRO BONO AND ELDER LAW: END OF LIFE PLANNING

Tuesday, May 6, 2014, 2:00 pm – 3:30 pm

(1.5 hours of MCLE Credit Pending)

Senior citizens often face an array of legal issues involving end-of-life decisions such as advance planning for medical care and the disposition of their estates. Unfortunately, they also often lack the financial resources to retain private counsel and must rely on the assistance of volunteer lawyers. The Virginia State Bar, Virginia Poverty Law Center and Virginia Department of Aging and Rehabilitative Services are offering a free webinar (CLE) for volunteer lawyers to assist them in the representation of senior citizens in these matters. This 90 minute webinar covers basic substantive law in matters of estate planning, including simple wills, advanced medical directives, and powers of attorneys as well as how and where to obtain pro bono cases.

Faculty:

- David Hominik, Legal Services Developer, Virginia Department for Aging and Rehabilitative Services
- Yahne Miorini, LL.M, Miorini Law PLLC, President –Elect of Virginia Chapter of the Academy of Elder Law Attorneys
- Kathy Pryor, Staff Attorney, Virginia Poverty Law Center

Agenda:

- a. Opportunities for Pro Bono
- b. Assessing the Capacity of a Client
- c. Advanced Medical Directives
- d. Powers of Attorney and Living Wills
- e. Doing a Simple Will
- f. Questions and Answers

Please register at <https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/7230156824835914497>

By registering for this free CLE program, attendees agree to accept a pro bono referral from a recognized pro bono legal services program.