

Positions Available

CITY ATTORNEY (CITY OF HOPEWELL)

The historic City of Hopewell, located at the confluence of the Appomattox and James Rivers is seeking applications for the position of City Attorney. Minimum qualifications include graduation from an accredited law school, with admission to the Virginia State Bar and five to ten years of increasingly responsible experience in the practice of law. Past local government experience is desirable. Per the City Charter, the City Attorney shall be the chief legal advisor of the council and the chief administrative officer. As designated by council, the city attorney also shall serve as the chief legal advisor to other departments, boards, commissions, and agencies of the city in all matters affecting the interests of the city. The successful applicant must demonstrate a broad range of experience and knowledge of Virginia law, and a high level of knowledge and performance in local government, including Roberts Rules of Order. Membership in local government organizations and attendance of continuing education seminars specializing in local government is required of the successful candidate—all dues and fees related thereto will be reimbursed. The salary for the position is negotiable. Benefits include participation in the Virginia Retirement System, vacation and sick leave, group life insurance, and medical insurance. Residency within the City is required within a negotiated period of time. Please submit a letter of application, detailed resume with salary history, and three work-related references to the Hopewell City Clerk at city_attorney@hopewellva.com.

Join a VSB Section

There are twenty sections of the Virginia State Bar. Each is a separate group devoted to improving the practice of law in a particular substantive area or specialty practice. The sections operate under bylaws and policies approved by the Virginia State Bar Council. They elect their own officers and choose their own activities within the limits established by the Council. Section membership is open to all members in good standing of the Virginia State Bar. Many sections also have law student and associate memberships.
